

FINE CATTLE.

Brief Sketches of a Few Notables at Summit Farm.

A visit to Summit farm would delight anybody interested in fine cattle. It borders the western limits of the city and stretches down the Kankakee to the extent of a thousand acres with soil as black and rich as the gold sands of California. The farm is owned by Mr. Clem Studebaker, and managed by Mr. Frank H. Johnson. A portion of the farm is devoted to agriculture, but a larger share is a range for stock. The business of the place includes a dairy which utilizes the milk from 204 grade cows, in addition to that from the thoroughbreds. A creamery is located across the road from the stables where the surplus cream is turned in to butter, and the skimmed milk makes up a part of the food of the calves and younger cattle. Of the calves over one hundred and thirty have been dropped since the 1st of March. They are largely from grade cows by Hereford sires, and the young bulls are to be shipped to the Colorado stock ranges in which the Studebakers are interested.

But the special attractions at the Summit farm stables are the thoroughbred Jersey and Hereford cattle. "Here," said Mr. Johnson to a Register reporter who visited the farm on Friday, as the tender led out a gentleman Jersey, "here is what we call the finest bull in the world. If you were an expert I could show you the points of superiority, but you will get an idea of them when I tell you he has captured eighteen sweepstakes prizes in Minnesota, Ohio and Michigan. He is the Duke of Willow Grove. That will do, Rogers."

The magnificent animal was led back into his enclosure and another led out from the next stall.

"This," said Mr. Johnson, "is Cephalus, a son of the Duke of Willow Grove. He took first premiums at the Ohio state and Tri-state fairs."

Mr. Johnson next introduced the young Jersey cow, Little Patience, who won a great triumph in the circuit last fall. She won the first prizes at the Ohio state and Tri-state, the Michigan state, and the Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan fairs, having in places a high as thirty competitors. A thousand dollars has been refused for her.

Mareffa is another fine Jersey. She was sired by a half brother of Signal. Sally Buck is a fine 2-year-old Jersey who has twice taken second prize.

Edith E., a yearling Jersey, took first prize at the Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan fairs last fall.

Rose of Lake Forest, a soft-eyed member of the Jersey family, has a private record of sixteen pounds of butter in seven days.

Christa Rex, a fine young Jersey cow, by Cash Boy, a famous Ohio bull, who captured many prizes in his day.

Then came a heifer sired by Awanana, a son of Wauwaton, dam Mabel of Deerfoot, who has a record of seventeen pounds and ten ounces of butter in seven days and is also an inmate of the Summit farm stable.

Other fine Jerseys are Lady Maximo, Cozetta, Mattie F., and a calf from Duke of Willow Grove and Mareffa that took several first prizes last season, including that at the Michigan state fair where there were twenty-seven other entries. There are thirty thoroughbred Jerseys in all and four of the cows were imported.

Mr. Johnson then led the way to the Hereford stable. Among the celebrities there are Dakota, a magnificent bull, who took first prize at the Ohio state fair, and at the Tri-state and Michigan state fairs led the herd to victory. He was sired by Tradege and his dam was Dollie Varden, an imported cow. At eighteen months he weighed 2,110 pounds. He is now two years old. Other notables are Century, a grandson of Lord Wilton, who sold for $20,000 last year; Dauntless Red Rose, whose dam, Dauntless Rose, is considered the best cow in England and who has a half-sister that sold for $5,000. Elsie, a half-blood, took three state prizes last fall as the best fat cow. She will be cut up for Christmas and will be the best beef ever slaughtered for this market. She now weighs about 1,700 pounds. The Hereford herd includes fourteen head of imported heifers.—South Bend, Ind., Register.

Panic on Main Street.

The crowd at the great closing out sale of Holiday Goods at the Art Bazaar is almost unmanageable. If this riotous racket keeps up it will need a strong force of special police to keep order. Come early and avoid being crushed.

CHARITY.

J. G. WHITTIER.

The pilgrim and stranger who through the day Holds over the desert his trackless way, Where the terrible sands no shades have known, No sound of life save the camel's moan, Hears last, through the mercy of Allah to all, From his tent door at evening the Bedouin's call: "Whoever thou art whose need is great, In the name of God, the Compassionate And Merciful One, for thee I wait."

For gifts in his name of food and rest The tents of Islam of God are best, Thou who hast faith in the Christ above, Shall the Koran teach thee the law of love? O Christian! open thy heart and door, Cry east and west to the wandering poor: "Whoever thou art whose need is great, In the name of Christ the Compassionate And Merciful One, for thee I wait."

Room No. 1, First Floor.

Can be consulted daily from 9 o'clock to 12 o'clock a.m., and from 2 to 6 o'clock p.m. Sundays from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. He has had twenty-five years' experience in the special treatment of all Venereal, Syphilitic and Chronic Diseases, and guarantees to cure all Urinary Diseases, Syphilitic or Mercurial, Affections of the Throat, Skin or Bones. Nervous Debility, Impotency and Lost Manhood, exhausted Vitality, Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhoea, Paralysis, and all the terrible effects of Self-Abuse, youthful follies and excesses in mature years. Nocturnal Emission, the effects of which are various, maddening and destructive to both body and mind, and unless cured will terminate fatally. The presence of the disease causes a continual consciousness of a slow and gradual decay of all the power of body and mind with loss of manly power and vigor, defective memory, heart affections, loss of sight, noises in the head and ears, confusion of ideas, aversion to society, excessive prostration, trembling of the hands and limbs, consumption, marasmus and ultimate derangement of the mind. The will power becomes so weak that the person seems to lose control of himself and cannot look one square in the face. It also causes Dyspepsia and Indigestion with Heart and Kidney Disease.
